

ANNUAL REUNION LUNCHEON 2014

The 2014 Annual Reunion Luncheon was held at The Club in San Rafael on May 9, with 42 attendees.

Linda Glasscock, our secretary and prime arranger for this luncheon, greets long time member Nick Clark.

Mike Chernock, our President, introduces Judge D'Opal, the Superior Court Judge responsible for the 2013-2014 Grand Jury.

Our speaker, Dianne Steinhauser, Executive Director, The Transportation Authority of Marin, discusses the arrangements for her presentation with Beate Boultinghouse, President CGJA, and Mike.

Seated at the Head Table are, Beate Boultinghouse, President of the CGJA, V-Anne Chernock, Vice Chair of the Citizens Oversight committee of TAM (Transit Authority of Marin), Dianne Steinhauser, Executive Director of TAM and our keynote speaker, Presiding Superior Court Judge Faye D'Opal, Mike, and Steven Woodside, Marin County Counsel

Several members of the new Implementation Review Committee gathered at a table with Rich Treadgold.

Additional members and guests started to arrive.

The food was delicious.

Some of the "Old Timers", Sterling Harwell and his wife, Reva Saper, Wes Huss and Lowell Smith.

Our speaker discussed the many activities of The Transportation Authority of Marin, including assistance to the Smart Train System and public safety systems as well as highway congestion.

Beate Boultinghouse gave a talk emphasizing a new program by the San Francisco chapter to introduce the Grand Jury system in the High Schools

Nadine Muller, Chairperson of the Current Grand Jury gave a brief report about the 6 reports already published and that there were several more in the system.

After our speakers finished Mike had Beate Boultinghouse assist in giving thanks to the departing Officers and Board Members.

At the end of the meeting Vice President James Murad asked Rich Treadgold, candidate for next years Presidency, to introduce the other candidates for election. Rich did so, also announcing a change in that John Dower would be replacing Martin Kornfeld as a Director. He then asked for any further nominations, and seeing none, asked for a vote of the membership on the current nominations. That vote being unanimous, he declared the election complete with the election of all of the proposed nominee slate , as changed.

Rich Treadgold giving his Acceptance Speech.
